

Die Veneris, 15 Octob. 1647.

ORdered by the Commons assembled in Parliament, That the Sergeant at Arms attending on this House be required by himself or his Servants, to apprehend all such Women or other persons that he shall be informed of, who clamor about the Houses, and speak any scandalous words against the Parliament, and carry them to the next Justice of Peace, who is required to send the said persons so apprehended for the Crimes aforesaid, to the house of Correction; and to give order, That they may be there punished according to Law and Justice: And the Captains and other Officers of the Guards attending the Houses, are required, as occasion shall be upon the desire of the Sergeant or his Men, to be ayding and assisting to the said Sergeant or his Men in the due execution of this Order.

H: Elfyng, Cler. Parl. D. Com.

---

London, Printed for Edward Husband, Printer to the Honorable House of Commons, 1647.